No man can comfort our souls in this pandemic
the way God can.

Coronavirus and Christ

The coronavirus calls us to make God the all-important, pervasive reality in our lives.
JOHN PIPER
Coronavirus and Christ

"This is a time when the fragile form of this world is felt. The seemingly solid foundations are shaking. The question we should be asking is: Do we have a Rock under our feet? A Rock that cannot be shaken--ever?" --John Piper

On January 11, 2020, a novel coronavirus (COVID-19) reportedly claimed its first victim in the Hubei province of China. By March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization had declared a global pandemic. In the midst of this fear and uncertainty, it is natural to wonder what God is doing.

In Coronavirus and Christ, John Piper invites readers around the world to stand on the solid Rock, who is Jesus Christ, in whom our souls can be sustained by the sovereign God who ordains, governs, and reigns over all things to accomplish his wise and good purposes for those who trust in him. What is God doing through the coronavirus? Piper offers six biblical answers to that question, showing us that God is at work in this moment in history.

Alternatively if you want a copy of the book it is available from Christian bookshops and on-line retailers as a paperback for approx. £5.00 or £2.00 for Kindle readers.
